

Indiana Department of Revenue

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 14, 2005

Contact: Stephanie McFarland, APR
Office: 317/234-3793
Mobile: 317/696-3275

Department of Revenue Open Until Midnight Final Day of Amnesty

Indianapolis (Nov. 14, 2005) – Indiana Tax Amnesty ends tomorrow, Nov. 15, 2005. The Department of Revenue payment offices throughout the state will be open until midnight. Free parking will be available from 5 p.m. – midnight in the north state parking garage in Indianapolis, with entry off of New York Street.

Indiana Tax Amnesty is a one-time opportunity for individuals and businesses to file and pay taxes for periods ending prior to July 1, 2004, without penalty, interest or fear of civil or criminal prosecution.

Those who are eligible and do not take advantage of amnesty will face double penalties, in addition to standard interest and legal action, after Nov. 15, 2005.

"We will begin legal pursuit on November 16 against those individuals and business that do not take advantage of amnesty," said Department of Revenue Commissioner John Eckart.

For a list of Department of Revenue offices around the state, visit
<http://www.in.gov/dor/contact/district.html>

###